As parent/guardian, hereby grants The Day News & Media permission to use photographs, videos, written articles, graphics or illustrations provided by my child as part of their submission to Student Voices and the Global Young Journalist Awards.

I also grant permission for The Day to publish this content for any lawful purpose, including, but not limited to, The Day's website, social media accounts, promotional materials, press releases, advertising, either digital or in print, in perpetuity.

In addition, should my child win one of the categories at the Global Young Journalist Awards, I give permission for any event sponsors to publish photographs, videos, written articles, graphics or illustrations provided by my child for their entry to that category, on any of their marketing channels, in perpetuity.

By signing and dating this document, I waive any rights of privacy or compensation associated with the use of the content for the commercial purposes outlined above.

The child's school will be referenced in publication.

In addition, I consent to The Day publishing my child's:
