

Reflection Sheet

Take a few minutes to think about today's lesson.

Answer the questions below - there are no right or wrong answers, just your honest thoughts.

1. What is one new and important fact you learned about democracy today?

2. Why is it important that citizens have a voice in a democracy?

3. How did working with your group affect your thinking?

Pick ONE option from below and answer the questions in the space provided:

Option A	Option B	Option C
What actions will you take following this lesson? How does that fit into the key features of a democracy?	How did today's topic make you feel? What did you find most challenging?	What did you learn from someone else in the class? How did that help you think differently? ?

Choose your question: (Write the letter here)

Your answer:

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.