

Reflection Sheet

Take a few minutes to think about today's lesson.

Answer the questions below - there are no right or wrong answers, just your honest thoughts.

1. What is one argument for Votes at 16, and one argument against?

2. Why does voting matter in a democracy?

3. Did you change your mind about anything today?

Pick ONE option from below and answer the questions in the space provided:

Option A	Option B	Option C
What actions will you take following this lesson? How might you influence the opinions of those who do not agree with your view on Vote at 16?	How did today's topic make you feel? What did you find most challenging?	What did you learn from someone else in the class? How did that help you think differently?

Choose your question: (Write the letter here)

Your answer:

This image shows a blank sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.