

Reflection Sheet

Take a few minutes to think about today's lesson.

Answer the questions below - there are no right or wrong answers, just your honest thoughts.

1. What should someone do if they have intimate images shared?

---

---

---

---

---

2. How could someone respond if they are asked to share a 'nude'?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

3. What's one thing you learned or will remember from today?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Pick ONE option from below and answer the questions in the space provided:

Option A	Option B	Option C
What did you learn or hear today that has surprised you?	Have you changed your mind about this issue today?	What did you notice about your reactions to the different voices and perspectives shared today?

Choose your question: (Write the letter here)

Your answer:

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

Optional Scaffolding for the 'Apply' activity - Conscience Corridor.

These prompts can be cut out and given to different sides of the 'corridor' for each scenario to help students take on the perspective and being the voice inside the head. They are also on the slides.

Scenario - Alex

Voices encouraging Alex to send the image	Voices warning Alex not to send it
"It's just one picture, what's the harm?"	"Once it's sent, you can't get it back."
"You can trust Taylor; they wouldn't show anyone."	"Real friends wouldn't pressure you like this."
"If you say no, they might stop liking you."	"This could get serious, it's against the law."
"Everyone else does it, don't be so uptight."	"You deserve to feel safe and respected."